SOUTH PARIS

South Paris Twilight League
Every ball player in South Paris is behind the Twilight League as was shown last week by the number of candidates out for the different teams.

Forty-two fellows showed up the first night for practice, and by Thursday there were four teams, "A" and "B" teams playing a four inning game that evening. Although the score 14 to 8 indicates a loose game it went to show up some very strong material for the town team.

Friday evening "C" and "D" teams played a three inning game, score 4 to 3. This game also showed up some strong material and the town team will be picked from these four teams practice starting Wednesday night, April 23.

The Twilight League Teams are made up as follows:

"A" TEAM
Masterman
Rae Newton
Russell
Durrep
Hubbard
Edmond

"B" TEAM

"C" TEAM

Harold Shaw
Pete Shaw
Wills
O. Butts

"D" TEAM

From the above teams, a town team will be picked which will leave chances for more players and we are herewith sending out a general call for ball players living in South Paris and Paris Hill.

Nyiregyhazi, World Famous Pianist
Will be at Association Hall, So. Paris, Wednesday evening, May 7th, the climax of the musical season will close with this wonderful recital. This will complete his tour from Maine to California this season. The demand has been so great, and the enthusiasm ran so high that he has been obliged to give three recitals in many cities. A record that has not been equaled by any pianist to date for one season. The great audience who heard him in Portland and Bangor last fall will recall his magic art. The critics of both Europe and America are most unanimous in their praise, for this marvelous genius. He has been acclaimed a second Liszt, and was quite as remarkable in his early performances, even as a boy prodigy as his first. His career when he was only twenty-one years of age. Every piano student, pianist young and old, and every lover of music should not fail to embrace this opportunity of hearing this most interesting and popular recital. He does not play the piano like an ordinary great pianist. He plays like a genius, and makes the piano sound like an orchestra of 110 pieces.

Observance of Easter

Residence Guttered by Fire

The stable, shed, poultry house and all the Charles Walker buildings at 35 Elm street owned by Winfield Allen were destroyed by shortly after 11 o'clock Tuesday night. The fire had gained considerable headway before a neighbor was awakened by the glare and notified central where an alarm called out the entire fire department.

The Allen family were awakened by the firemen and barely escaped suffocation as the chambers were filled with dense smoke when the department broke into the dwelling.

Prompt work saved the main house but the rooms were damaged by smoke and water. This part had been recently repaired and put in fine shape. Some of the furniture was wrecked in its removal. Insurance on the buildings and furniture will partly cover the loss but a touring car, considerable clothing, carpenter's tools and other personal effects are a total loss. A pet dog sleeping in the automobile was burned together with several hens that returned to the roost after being released.

It is believed the fire started around the automobile kept in the stable which had been used as a garage.

The family will occupy the main house until definite plans are made for the future.

Swapped Off His Son's Auto

Guy N. Carter of Revere, Mass. showed good judgment in bringing his auto to Norway to be stored in his father's barn the past winter.

Guy and his daughter, Clara, arrived by train last Saturday evening to take the car back home and found a new car instead of the old one.

George W. Carter, the father takes a notion to swap the old car for a new one for the boy. Of course the son was pleased and started for Revere, Sunday morning, happy in the thought of having a good and generous father.

Is Honesty the Best Policy?
This is an honest word after all, according to a party smelting near Harrison Saturday night. They lost a bottle of the usual smelting fluid between Norway and the stream. The loss was not discovered until reaching the base of operations, and a little ahead of them—streets, stores and best of all, the people. Sorry to leave. A very pleasant stay."

The degree will be conferred on a class of candidates at the next meeting of Lake Temple Pythian Sisters on Tuesday, May 6, and a buffet lunch served. Hamlin Temple of South Paris will be guests of the evening. A large attendance is urged.

A unanimous vote was passed to contribute a sum of money to the band. A. L. T. Cummings of Portland, manager of the Maine State Chamber of Commerce, was the principal speaker. His subject was "Helping Your Home Town."

Those intending to build a house this spring should follow these instructions: "Nobody should build a new house until after he has consulted all his neighbors about it and gone over the plans with every other person on the townsite who is liable to be in the course of construction."

American Legion Minstrels

Checking tickets at Norway Opera House opened with a bang Monday evening for the show to be presented Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. There was no confusion for checks were issued commencing at 4 o'clock which enabled the eager ones to receive a numbered position for the grand opening later. This arrangement did away with mob law experienced at their first show four years ago.

Tickets were issued in serials for both nights. Serial number 38 is good only for Thursday night and serial 39 only for Friday night. Please keep this in mind to avoid confusion with the ushers.

That the house will be packed solid at both performances is evident. The boys have a smart, snappy show under the direction of Harold Moore, with crisp comedy, fine soloists and pleasing vaudeville. Many old time favorites will be there with several new stars in the line to entertain, with a total of thirty-five performers.

This year vaudeville numbers open the show and they are classy. Singing, dancing, instrumental and sidewalk patter. The circle will prove a revelation with its strong male chorus, vocalists and a group of kippys and men. A brilliant orchestra of nine pieces will accompany the entire show and play for the dancing carnival after the program Friday night.

One word about the Carnival. Favors, novelties and all fixings will be there. Fun and a lot of it is the countersign.

Seats may be checked at Stone's, but don't forget the serial numbers, 38 for Thursday night and 39 for Friday.

Birthday Anniversary Surprise

On Friday, the 18th, Mrs. Cora E. Twitchell was invited to have dinner with her daughter, Mrs. Olney J. Burgess, who lives in the Greenleaf House on Main St. She did not think this date was the 62nd anniversary of her birth and was being made a home gathering of the descendants, but such it proved.

There were two daughters present, five grandchildren, two grandmothers, one son-in-law, O. J. Burgess, and F. W. Sanborn. The table was appropriately decorated and the birthday cake was made by the grandchildren assisted by the daughters. The presents were numerous and the occasion will be long remembered.

Those present were Olney J. Burgess, his wife, Lucretia H., and daughter Madeline, Mrs. Eola M. Goodwin, with Norman A., 7; Natalie A., 5; Gordon C., 3; and Priscilla L., 5 months, and Mrs. D. W. Goodwin.

Home Service Salvation Army

The Salvation Army is making the annual Home Service appeal for the support of the work in the State of Maine. There are ten Army Corps, three Industrial Homes and Hotels now in operation in Maine and the relief extended to the poor and unfortunate is limited only to the extent of the support of the public. Commander Booth has said, "We want to go further into dark alleys. We are going to provide more fresh milk for starving babies. We are going to throw a longer and stronger arm around young women who take a misstep."

The solicitors will call upon the people of Norway and it is expected that a generous response will result. The cost of a motor trip will save a starving baby. Fred Smith of the Norway National Bank is the local Treasurer.

Anxious patrons of the coming minstrel show gathered at the Norway Opera House door, last Monday, at 1:45 P. M.

The crowd increased and blocked the sidewalk by 4 o'clock when the drawing of seats began. H. Roy Fletcher got No. 1, Freddie Lewis No. 2 and Mrs. Eugene Lebroke No. 3 and Mrs. Elmer Mart 26.

A Norway woman has given up cigarettes because she finally became convinced that she would never be able to learn to expartorate with any degree of gracefulness and charm.

Easter Services

All church services were largely attended with an unusual interest shown in the Easter observance.

The services at the Methodist church were impressive, made so partly for the reason that Rev. T. C. Chapman was conducting his last meetings as pastor of the Norway church. Four persons were received into full membership at the morning service. The Vesper service at 4:30 p. m. was enjoyed by a large congregation and proved a fitting climax to the day.

Three records were made at the Congregational church, Sunday morning, namely, the largest morning attendance, the largest group of children to be christened and the greatest number at one time to unite with the church. Fourteen children were christened, and twenty-seven adults received into membership.

The congregation filled the auditorium and a large number were seated in the vestry. Communion in the afternoon and special services in the evening were largely attended.

Special music during the morning service at the Baptist church and the attendance was larger than usual. The evening concert by the Sunday School was in keeping with the Easter thought and proved inspiring.

A beautiful Easter service was given at the Universalist church, Sunday afternoon, and a large number attended. Two members were received into the church at the roll call and communion held the previous Thursday evening. The church united with others in the community, for evening worship.

Junior C. E. Observed Easter

The Junior Society of the Congregational church had special exercises Sunday afternoon in connection with the regular service. Charlotte Longley was leader. Irene Tubbs read an Easter story; Dorothy Anderson rendered a solo, "Nailed to the Cross"; Evelyn Saleeby read the Easter story written by Mrs. Cora Cummings and Dorothy Smith rendered in pantomime the song, "That Sweet Story of Old," with Marion Welch accompanist.

A report showed fourteen new members gained in the contest since Feb. 1, with a total membership of 83. Last month the two sides in the attendance contest were tied.

Many old time favorites will be there with several new stars in the line to entertain, with a total of thirty-five performers.

This year vaudeville numbers open the show and they are classy. Singing, dancing, instrumental and sidewalk patter. The circle will prove a revelation with its strong male chorus, vocalists and a group of kippys and men. A brilliant orchestra of nine pieces will accompany the entire show and play for the dancing carnival after the program Friday night.

One word about the Carnival. Favors, novelties and all fixings will be there. Fun and a lot of it is the countersign.

Seats may be checked at Stone's, but don't forget the serial numbers, 38 for Thursday night and 39 for Friday.

Checking tickets at Norway Opera House opened with a bang Monday evening for the show to be presented Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

There was no confusion for checks were issued commencing at 4 o'clock which enabled the eager ones to receive a numbered position for the grand opening later. This arrangement did away with mob law experienced at their first show four years ago.

Tickets were issued in serials for both nights. Serial number 38 is good only for Thursday night and serial 39 only for Friday night. Please keep this in mind to avoid confusion with the ushers.

That the house will be packed solid at both performances is evident. The boys have a smart, snappy show under the direction of Harold Moore, with crisp comedy, fine soloists and pleasing vaudeville. DAYS OF DIZZINESS

Come to Hundreds of Norway People There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, languor, backache; Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders. Doan's Pills are especially for kidney ills.

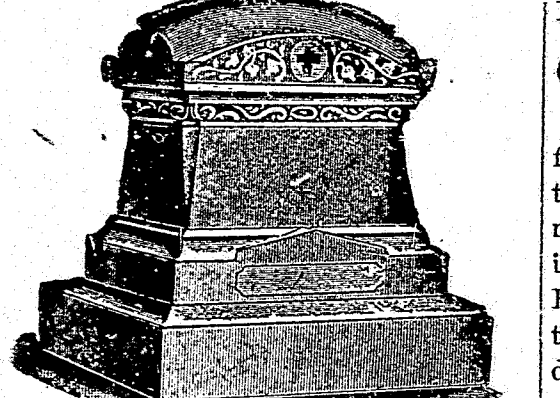

Endorsed in Norway by grateful friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor. Mrs. W. J. Olmstead, 95 Main St., Norway, says: "My kidneys began to give me trouble as they were weak. My back ached so badly I could hardly get through with my housework and everything I undertook to do seemed a drag. I was dizzy and could see star-like spots before my eyes. My feet and ankles swelled. I read about Doan's Pills being good and sent for some. When I had finished taking them, I felt as well as ever. The backache ceased and my kidneys became regulated. I have told a number of people about Doan's.

SICK WOMAN MADE HAPPY

Entirely Restored to Health
by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mart, Texas.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build me up as I was all run-down, nervous and lachrymose and hurt all over so that I was often compelled to go to bed, and I had to have most of my work done. No medicine seemed to help me until one of my neighbors who was taking the Vegetable Compound insisted on me trying a bottle of it. The medicine helped me from the first, and the best of all is that I can even sew again without that awful, nervous feeling I was used to having. And I used to take crying spells, with such a blue feeling that I cannot explain. Now all that has left me. I feel so cheerful, and I have gained in weight, sleep well and eat hearty. Oh! I wish I had words to express what this medicine has done for me! I am a housekeeper and do everything from the sewing to the washing now and it doesn't hurt me. You may use my letter in any way you wish. I will be glad to help any suffering woman to the road of health and happiness."

FRYEBURG

Mrs. Addie Gould Brown, wife of C. H. Brown, a resident of Fryeburg, but well known in Portland and South Portland, where she has often visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Nellie Hathaway, passed away Monday, April 14, while en route North from the winter home of her son in St. Petersburg, Florida. Although her death was not unexpected, the fact that it came before she reached home brought an added sadness.

Mrs. Brown was born in Lovell, May 1, 1847, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fox. Fifty years ago she married C. H. Brown, a well known business merchant, and to them was born a son Benjamin Brown, founder and owner of Brown's Camps at Center Lovell and of Brown's Hotel at St. Petersburg, Florida.

At Mr. Brown's retirement from business they moved to the home of their son in Fryeburg, and Mrs. Brown rapidly became "Aunt Addie" to the whole town. A motherly, kindly soul, self-effacing and sacrificing, she bore her troubles and those of all her friends with a cheerful fortitude that well became her Christian character. To the very last she maintained her clarity of mind, and the powers which had so long enabled her to actively do her share in her allotted tasks. "You know her but to love her, none spoke of her but to praise her."

Besides her husband, she leaves her son Benjamin Brown of Fryeburg, two brothers, Eben Fox of Lovell and Portland, Frank Fox the veteran reinsman of Medford, Mass., a sister, Mrs. Nellie Hathaway of South Portland, three grandchildren, Roger and Edmund Brown and Mrs. Gertrude Sherburne of Fryeburg, two great grandchildren, the daughter and son of Mrs. Sherburne of Fryeburg, two nephews, Charles Fox of Fryeburg and Ned Fox of Portland, and nieces, Miss E. Myrt French of South Portland and Mrs. Del Stearns of Lovell, together with numerous relatives, related through marriage. But pressing close behind is a legion of friends who in her passing lose one of God's noble women.

Fashion Revue at Rex

Manager Wm. DeGroot introduced another novelty at Rex Theatre, Friday evening when the spring fashions were displayed under a spot light on living models selected in town.

Suits, sweaters, cloaks, capes, knickers and bathing suits were from the store of Z. L. Merchant. Spring hats and Easter Stylish shoes came from the stock at N. Swett Shoe Co. Men's and boys' suits and hats were furnished by the L. F. Pike Co. and Eliot A. Fuller Co.

The models in the attractive display were Ruth Holt, Della Holt, Hilda Russell, Juetta Dinsmore, Olive Dinsmore, Albert Quinby, Leo Bennett, George Greenleaf, Mark Smith, Francis Noble, Robert Goodwin, Eugene Fride, and Master George Verenis.

Special features included Alfred Cota, violinist, and Mrs. Berenice Nash Hill, vocalist. Reta and Gene DeGroot amused all with juvenile stunts.

Attention was given to the lighting on the stage to bring out the best color effects in the gowns. Rex Theatre was crowded beyond the doors and was one of the record crowds.

Another "Frolic" with the local vaudeville stars is in preparation. The stunts presented a short time since made a hit and the new program will prove fully as entertaining.

Jim True's Mud Turtle

Col. A. M. Dunham of snowshoe fame brought the aforesaid big turtle to the village last week and put it on exhibition at the Buick Show Rooms. Visitors were numerous and much speculation as to the age.

Thirty years ago when in the possession of J. C. True and Ross Bickford it weighed 57 pounds and now it tips the scales at 58, hence an increase of one pound in 30 years. Allowing this to be the average increase it would indicate that the turtle was 1710 years old.

The turtle has new markings on its shell. "A. M. D. 1924," "N. A. N. 1924," "A. M. D. 1924," also Col. Dunham's Arctic snowshoe brand burnt into its shell. It also has the "J. C. T. 1894" cut in by Jim True. The poor turtles back resembles a checker board.

The turtle was returned to the water for the second time the first of the week.

Whitman's Norway History

A complete history is on our desk. It contains 581 pages with nearly 800 pictures and much interesting reading and sells for $5.00.

The history has been the life work of the author or in other words he has employed his spare moments for the past fifty years in compiling it. That there are errors in it goes without the saying but in the main it is as accurate as painstaking labor and will be a lasting monument of its author.

It was printed at the printshop of the Lewiston Journal Co. who are publishers with the author. The State of Maine Public Library at Augusta took 100 copies at $5.00 each.

The books will be delivered from the publisher's office in Lewiston, also by C. F. Whitman, Norway, Me., $5.00 per copy, postage extra.

Good Evening, Charlie

The Senior play at Norway Opera House, May 6 is a clean, hilarious comedy by J. C. McMullen, author of this year's successful high school drama, "When a Feller Needs a Friend." It is a farce comedy of domestic life in three laugh provoking acts, with not a dull moment in the show. The play was selected from among Baker's royalty plays, by Harold A. Anderson, successful coach of numerous past hits, and will be given under his expert supervision. The funny complications that arise are ably handled by a talented cast that has appeared together in the past.

The leading lady, Hilda Russell, is the first speaker on the Senior Debating team and was in the final Sophomore Prize Speaking contest. She appeared in the 1923 benefit play, "The Sweet Family," and took the part of Olive Bins in last year's high school drama, "The Wild Man of Borneo," also as Mary Blake in the Junior drama, "And Billy Disappeared."

The leading male part is taken by Louie Roy. Mr. Roy won first prize for boys in the Sophomore Prize Speaking contest. He also took the part of Capt. Lefton Wright in the high school drama, "The Wild Man of Borneo," and Jerry Smith in this year's high school drama, "When a Feller Needs a Friend." In the Junior drama "And Billy Disappeared," he played the part of Hon. B. M. Borden.

Edith Joslin plays opposite Roy. Miss Joslin has taken the parts of Edith Bronson in the 1923 High School drama, "Tommy's Wife," Aggie Borden in the Junior drama, "And Billy Disappeared," Lizzie Dayton in the high school drama, "The Wild Man of Borneo," and Dhiri in the high school opera, "Daughter of the Crescent." She appeared in the benefit play, "A Cheerful Companion," and in the "Amateur Frolics of 1924" at the Rex Theatre.

The second male lead is played by Dale Allen, who has had much experience in dialogue speaking and won second prize for boys in the Sophomore Prize Speaking contest.

Helen Dullea plays opposite him as his wife. Miss Dullea won first prize for girls in the Sophomore Prize Speaking contest, was a girl slave in the high school opera, "Daughter of the Crescent," and second speaker on the senior debating team.

Frances Moore is another amateur stage veteran, having taken the part of Patty Campbell in the high school drama "Tommy's Wife," and played opposite Roy in the Junior drama, "And Billy Disappeared." Miss Moore was in the Sophomore Prize Speaking contest and was DuChenal in the high school opera, "Daughter of the Crescent," and also appeared in "A Cheerful Companion."

The part of the maiden aunt is taken by Elizabeth Hall, a contestant in Sophomore Prize Speaking. She has taken the part of Darkness in the "Daughter of the Crescent," Mrs. DeYorburg in "Tommy's Wife," Miss Match in the Junior drama, "And Billy Disappeared," Gladys Barker, second prize winner for girls in the Sophomore Prize Speaking contest, was Mrs. Gray in "And Billy Disappeared," wife of the Sheikh in the high school opera, "Daughter of the Crescent," and the new scholar in the Universalist Church drama, "The Rain-servant girl, Daphne."

Teddy Langley, a cowboy, is taken by Harry Kenyon, winner of the Ellsworth High School Junior Speaking Contest. Mr. Kenyon appeared in numerous pageants at Atlantic, Mass.

Manford Palmer, all-round athlete and captain of 1923-24 football, basketball, and baseball, takes the part of Mr. Lewis. William "Dunkirk," Northville, New Dusebury in the Junior drama, "And Billy Disappeared," member of the Senior Debating team, (rebuttal), and an invalid in the high school opera.

The student body gave their approval of a five-cent blanket tax to buy some new orchestra pieces for the High School Orchestra. The orchestra will play once a week at the morning exercises in the assembly room.

The N. H. S. Guild's Academy baseball game scheduled for Patriot's Day was indefinitely postponed. It is doubtful if the Bethel boys can appear here as the dates for both schools are practically filled.

Quiet Club Demonstration
The so-called Quiet Rook Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. and Mr. Leroy Titus where the customary ceremonies, in keeping with the hilarious spirit of its members, were performed. Unfortunately the name is not in keeping with the activities during their ceremonies, as many not familiar with the gatherings might consider the membership limited to the deaf and dumb.
A bountiful covered dish supper was served at 6:15, after which Albert D. Park in behalf of the Club, presented Miss Carolyn Gray a handsome nickel plated trivet. A male quartet rendered several selections and the ladies gave an aviril chorus while washing dishes in a quiet manner, typical of the club name. Rook followed until a late hour. This was a quiet session—to citizens one mile away.

Club members present were Mr. and Mrs. Don Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Butten, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Park, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Titus, Rena Tribou, Harriette Jenne, Carolyn Gray, Archie Cole, Stephen Russell. Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Masterman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conant, Mr. and Mrs. John Titus, Nellie Jackson, Marion Gray, Hilda Haati, Muriel and Gertrude Titus, Elwood and Alva Titus.

Members of the executive committee and project leaders of the Oxford County Farm Bureau and County Agent Thomas dined at Merrill's Lunch last Thursday. The tables and menu were especially arranged for the party numbering seventeen persons.

Midweek Service Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. There was a fine concert Sunday evening, with a large audience. The singing was very good and the children did their parts well. Great praise is due to those who had charge; also to the musicians, which helped to make the concert such a success. The decorations of the church were very tasteful and pretty. All may be summed up in the words "We had a fine Easter day."

Eighteenth Annual Field Day
Four hundred and more people attended the annual field day and demonstration given by A. W. Walker & Son and Burnham & Morrill Co. on Wednesday. Every implement to make farming and dairying successful was on exhibition in the large salesroom or arranged in the field nearby. Representatives of the various concerns which the Walker firm represent were on hand to explain the machinery and talk about farming.

All enjoyed the free dinner served by an able corps of assistants in the corn factory packing room. Baked beans and brown bread put up by Burnham & Morrill Co. with soda crackers and coffee was provided in abundance.

Percy Walker was toastmaster during the exercises following the dinner. Albert Walker has in the past performed this ceremony but the mantle fell on the son and the program went without a hitch.

Alton C. Wheeler of South Paris was the first speaker and gave the address of the farmers was the keynote in the speech. At the close of his remarks a rising vote of thanks was given Albert Walker for his untiring efforts to make these gatherings helpful and practical.

Mr. Barnard of Portland representing the Burnham & Morrill Co., emphasized salesmanship and tolerance; Leslie McTear of East Waterford discussed the apple and sweet corn situation in Oxford County; Edward Swift, a prominent salesmanager, spoke interestingly along general lines of farming.

County Agent R. F. Thomas of South Paris explained the use of chemicals for orchard fertilizing and Prof. Geo. A. Yeaton of Augusta gave a pointed talk on orcharding in general.

Prof. Edward H. Brown and his agricultural class at Norway High School collected data and made notes as part of their class work. Each student will prepare a complete write-up of events and a description of implements to be ranked as school work. This method of teaching practical farming brought out favorable comments from the speakers.

The Elm Hill Community Club met with Mrs. Joshua Colby on Thursday afternoon, April 17, all the members were present and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. A quilt was tackled for the hostesses. There was a short business meeting, after which refreshments were served. There were visitors. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Malcolm Briggs on Wednesday, April 30.

If You Have n't Tile Have A Tile Like Finish

For bathroom walls, basements and such places where spotless tile is without a doubt the ideal surface, but because of its cost is beyond the reach of the average householder. However, the same glistening, pure white finish can be obtained by anyone at the cost of an ordinary oil paint. Barred Sunlight tile-like surface is washable, sanitary and dirt resisting. It contains neither varnish or lead, is cheaper than enamels and is easier to apply. Flows out smoothly leaving no brush marks and will dry over night.

Just try the Fruit Treatment for your Headaches, in the form of "Fruit-a-lives". Your druggist has them, 25c and 50c. a box—or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ogdensburg, N. Y.
